International Journal of Integrated Health and Sciences

in Bandung, Indonesia

Dear Sir,

Please find the submission of our manuscript, Gastrointestinal manifestations of COVID-19 patients: Role of neutrophil-to-lymphocyte ratio as a potential biomarker in occult bleeding.

Which we would like to submit for publication in the International Journal of Integrated Health Sciences. In this manuscript, identified the most common gastrointestinal symptoms in COVID-19 patients and evaluated NLR as a predictive biomarker for disease severity, a rare finding in previous research and contributing to advancing knowledge in internal medicine. This study also shows data on gastrointestinal symptoms not described in prior research about COVID-19 patients in Aceh and the role of NLR as a biomarker of occult bleeding.

Author and all co-authors have seen and agreed with the contents of the manuscript and there is no financial interest to report. We certify that the manuscript submitted is an original work and is not under review at any other publication. We thank you for considering our manuscript for publication in the International Journal of Integrated Health Science and look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely yours,
